MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. Case Overview and Relief Requested.

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and state law, Plaintiffs sued the City of Santa Monica (“City”), its police department (“SMPD”) and three city officials (Police Chief Batista, City Manager White, and SMPD Ofc. Lieb). Individually, Plaintiffs Reyes Contreras Murcia and Sherman A. Perryman sue contending defendants wrongfully seized and impounded under Cal. Veh. Code § 14602.6 Plaintiffs’ respective vehicles (Murcia vehicle impounded July 23, 2022; Perryman vehicle impounded June 24, 2021). First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) ¶¶23-36. Plaintiffs also sue as class representatives for persons whose vehicles defendants impounded under § 14602.6. Though the FAC sought both injunctive relief and damages, the injunctive relief claim became moot upon the City’s change of policy concerning § 14602.6 impounds. Declaration of Donald W. Cook [“Cook decl.”] ¶2 (ECF 77-1 @ page 2); ECF 77-2.

What is different between this motion and the earlier motion for class certification and preliminary approval of class settlement (see ECF 61 filed June 10, 2024) is that the present motion is limited to class certification. Assuming the Court certifies the proposed class, Plaintiffs will later bring a separate motion for preliminary approval of a class settlement. That way, all class members can receive notice of the proposed class settlement and thus have an opportunity to object before the Court issues a ruling on the proposed settlement, incentive payments, including any revisions the Court deems necessary (whether based on class members' objections or the Court's own imitative).

To further the above goal and assuming the Court certifies the class, Plaintiffs also seek an order that (a) sets a date no earlier than six weeks following class certification, for Plaintiffs to file a motion for preliminary class settlement approval); (b) that by the filing date of that motion, class members be served with the notice of motion and related documents (see Cook decl. 9(B) [ECF 77-1 @ page 5]).

Not addressed in this motion are the attorneys' fees and costs that may be awarded for Class Counsel. Plaintiffs will defer bringing that motion until after class 1 certification and preliminary approval of a class settlement (assuming both are granted).

2 Although fees and costs are not before the Court, three points should be noted. First, a 3 fees and costs motion will seek compensation per the lodestar methodology as 4 established by 42 U.S.C. § 1988, i.e., Plaintiffs will not be seeking a percentage of the 5 class recovery (though the fees and costs would be paid out of the 2024 settlement 6 amount). Second, assuming the Court certifies the proposed class and approves the 2024 7 class settlement, recoverable § 1988 fees will not exceed the $205,000 cap specified in 8 Plaintiffs' counsel's 9/2/25 declaration (ECF 75 page 3 @ ¶8(B)). And third, any 9 remaining funds not awarded for payment of fees or costs will be added to the recovery 10 for class members.

11 Finally, also not addressed are the incentive payments, if any, to the two 12 Plaintiffs, the proposed class representatives. This, Plaintiffs submit, should be 13 addressed on a motion for preliminary approval of class settlement. At that stage 14 putative class members will have an opportunity to object to the incentive payments 15 while the litigation will be near its end stage, a more appropriate time for valuing class 16 representatives' contribution to this litigation's prosecution.

17 II. Thirty-Day Vehicle Impounds.

18 Because of the importance of the issue to certifying the proposed class, Plaintiffs 19 address Cal. Veh. Code § 14602.6 (the 30 day vehicle impound statute) and the City's 20 now-discontinued policy enforcing § 14602.6 thirty day vehicle impounds.

21 A. Cal. Veh. Code § 14602.6.

22 Enacted in 1994, § 14602.6 permits a police officer to seize and remove from the 23 street a vehicle if its driver is unlicensed as defined in subsection (a)(1) – never been 24 licensed; suspended license for a traffic related offense; or a restricted license that 25 requires its holder to drive only vehicles with an approved anti-lock device (prevents 26 vehicle operation if the driver is intoxicated). If the officer elects to invoke § 14602.6, 27 then the vehicle must be impounded for 30 days. Section 14602.6(a)(1); *Brewster v.
Beck*, 859 F.3d 1194, 1195-96 (9th Cir. 2017).

1       Section 14602.6 has exceptions to the mandatory 30 day impound. They are (a) 2 if the driver was not unlicensed within the meaning of subdivision (a)(1); if the police 3 agency that seized the vehicle concludes there are “mitigating circumstances” for an 4 early release (the statute, however, does not define “mitigating circumstances”); if the 5 vehicle owner shows that the § 14602.6(a)(1) unlicensed driver is now licensed; if the 6 vehicle was stolen; if the vehicle was being driven under bailment (e.g., parking 7 attendant); if the vehicle was owned by a rental car agency (Hertz; Avis, etc.); or if the 8 vehicle’s legal owner (the finance company) reclaims the vehicle. See subdivisions (b) 9 through (f) and (h) to § 14602.6.<sup>1</sup>

10     Significantly, § 14602.6 has no requirement for early release if the vehicle is 11 being held in the absence of community caretaking or other Fourth Amendment 12 justification, see Miranda v. City of Cornelius, 429 F.3d 858, 862-64 (9th Cir. 2005).

13     An alternative statute for removing a vehicle from a public street because its 14 driver is unlicensed, is subdivision (p) of Cal. Veh. Code § 22651. Section 22651(p), 15 unlike § 14602.6, applies to any unlicensed driver. The other major difference is that 16 when the police seize a vehicle pursuant to § 22651(p), its owner can immediately 17 reclaim the vehicle upon (a) payment of towing and storage charges and (b) presentation 18 of a licensed driver to take possession. Brewster, 859 F.3d at 1197-98.

19     When a vehicle is subject to seizure under either § 14602.6 or § 22651(p), it is 20 discretionary for the officer or agency as to which statute to invoke. California Highway 21 Patrol v. v. Superior Court, 162 Cal.App.4th 1144, 1148 (2008).<sup>2</sup>

22     ///

23

24     <sup>1</sup> If a legal owner or car rental agency reclaims the vehicle, the legal owner or agency 25 must continue to enforce the 30 day impound. See § 14602.6, subdivisions (g)(1) and 26 (h)(1).

27     <sup>2</sup> Because § 14602.6(a)(1) applies only to a subset of unlicensed drivers whereas 28 § 22651(p) applies to all unlicensed drivers, by definition a § 14602.6(a)(1) unlicensed driver is also unlicensed within the meaning § 22651(p).

1           B. The City's (former) Policy On § 14602.6 Impounds.

2           Before November 22, 2022 when the City instructed SMPD officers to release a 3           § 14602.6 impounded vehicle as if it had been impounded under § 22651(p) (immediate 4           release required upon the vehicle owner presenting a licensed driver to take possession 5           and payment of accrued towing and storage charges), defendants would not release a 6           vehicle from a 30 day impound if the SMPD officials believed the vehicle's owner may 7           drive the vehicle in the future as an unlicensed driver. That is, defendants treated an 8           owner's possible future driving as an unlicensed driver as constituting "community 9           caretaking" that authorized the 30 day impound.

10          The above conclusion is shown by defendants' § 14602.6 impound of Plaintiff 11         Murcia's vehicle. When SMPD impounded Mr. Murcia's vehicle, he was an unlicensed 12         driver within the meaning of § 14602.6(a)(1). Furthermore, SMPD officials claimed that 13         because Mr. Murcia allegedly told SMPD officers he would continue to drive his 14         vehicle as an unlicensed driver, that fact meant that under § 14602.6, his vehicle would 15         be impounded for 30 days. In opposing Plaintiff Murcia's TRO application (ECF 16 16         [filed 8/2/22]), defendants submitted a declaration from Matthew Lieb, the SMPD 17         officer responsible for "enforcement of the state Vehicle Code" including § 14602.6 18         impounds. ECF 19-2 (filed 8/3/22) @ 2:1-3. In his declaration Lieb stated he 19         "determined that it was very likely that Mr. Murcia, who does not have a driver's 20         license, would continue to operate the vehicle if it were to be released to him or to 21         another individual," and thus "Mr. Murcia's vehicle to Mr. Murcia or to his agent prior 22         to the end of the 30-day period would be inconsistent with Santa Monica Policy Manual 23         section 503.2.1." ECF 19-2 @ 3:7-9 (emphasis added).

24          The City's policy of enforcing 30 day § 14602.6 impounds in the absence of 25         Fourth Amendment justification is also established by the 30 day impound of Plaintiff 26         Perryman's vehicle. Six days after SMPD impounded his Mercedes, Mr. Perryman, a 27         layman, brought to defendants' attention Brewster v. Beck, 859 F.3d 1194 (9th Cir. 2017) 28         and its holding that a 30 day § 14602.6 impound like that effected against him can

1 violate the Fourth Amendment. ECF 77-3 @ page 1. City officials rejected Brewster and 2 its holding, stating that once it was determined he was unlicensed within the meaning 3 of § 14602.6(a)(1), the 30 day impound was “legal and valid.” City officials further told 4 him that the Cal. Veh. Code § 22852 “storage” hearing he had requested and been 5 provided (which defendants call a “tow hearing”) was limited to “only the legality of the 6 tow and at the time of the tow and did the officer have legal right to tow the vehicle at 7 the time of the tow.” ECF 77-4 (Lieb letter to Perryman). In other words, the legal 8 justification for removing Mr. Perryman’s vehicle from the street was, per City policy, 9 justification that mandated the 30 day impound.

10 III. Standards for Class Certification.

11 Under F.R.Cv.P. 23 (“Rule 23”), a party seeking class certification must establish 12 the following prerequisites:

- 13 (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; 14 (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the claims 15 or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or 16 defenses of the class; and (4) the representative parties will fairly and 17 adequately protect the interests of the class.

18 Rule 23(a).

19 After satisfying the four prerequisites of numerosity, commonality, typicality, and 20 adequacy, a party must also demonstrate one of the following: (1) a risk that separate 21 actions would create incompatible standards of conduct for the defendant or prejudice 22 individual class members not parties to the action; (2) the defendant has treated the 23 members of the class as a class, making appropriate injunctive or declaratory relief with 24 respect to the class as a whole; or (3) common questions of law or fact predominate over 25 questions affecting individual members and that a class action is a superior method for 26 fairly and efficiently adjudicating the action. Rule 23(b)(1)–(3).

27 Rule 23 further provides that “[w]hen appropriate, an action may be brought or 28 maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues,” Rule 23(c)(4), or the

1 “class may be divided into subclasses that are each treated as a class under this rule,” 2 Rule 23(c)(5). “This means that each subclass must independently meet the 3 requirements of Rule 23 for the maintenance of a class action.” Betts v. Reliable 4 Collection Agency, Ltd., 659 F.2d 1000, 1005 (9th Cir. 1981).

5 IV. The Proposed Class Satisfies Rule 23(a).

6 A. Numerosity (Rule 23(a)(1)).

7 The damages class consist of approximately 91 vehicle owners whose vehicles 8 defendants seized and impounded at any time from July 28, 2020, to November 22, 2022 9 (“the Class period”), under the authority of Cal. Veh. Code § 14602.6. Class members 10 are identifiable by computer data that accurately identifies vehicles impounded under 11 § 14602.6 an identification that includes license plate number and/or vehicle 12 identification number (“VIN”). From that information Plaintiffs can obtain class 13 members’ current address. The computer data also establishes, for each impounded 14 vehicle, the out-of-pocket expenses each class member incurred in connection with the 15 vehicles’ seizure and ultimate release, or for those vehicles not released (because they 16 were sold at a statutory lien sale) the vehicle’s sale value. Cook decl. ¶¶3-5 (ECF 77-1).

17 The class size establishes numerosity. E.g., Jordan v. County of Los Angeles, 669 18 F.2d 1311, 1319 (9th Cir.), vacated on oth. grds., 459 U.S. 810 (1982); Gay v. Waiters’ 19 and Dairy Lunchmen’s Union, 549 F.2d 1330, 1332 (9th Cir. 1977).

20 B. Commonality (Rule 23(a)(2)).

21 Fourth Amendment – For all class members, defendants effected and enforced 22 § 14602.6 thirty day vehicle impounds without obtaining a warrant or judicial review 23 of any type. Cook decl. ¶9 (ECF 77-1). Thus, for every class member the common 24 dispositive issue is the absence of Fourth Amendment justification for the continued 25 impoundment of the vehicle even though its registered owner is willing and able to 26 reclaim the vehicle (by payment of accrued fees and presentation of a licensed driver to 27 take possession). Brewster v. Beck, 859 F.3d 1194, 1197 (9th Cir. 2017); Sandoval v.
28 County of Sonoma, 912 F.3d 509, 516-17 (9th Cir. 2018); Brewster v. City of Los 1      Angeles, 2023 U.S. Dist. Lexis 124570 (C.D. Cal. 2023) @ *33-*35 (filed 7/17/23).

2            Fifth Amendment (Takings Claim) – The absence of Fourth Amendment
3 justification for the thirty day § 14602.6 impound also establishes a Fifth Amendment 4 taking of property without justification. Lingle v. Chevron U.S.A. Inc., 544 U.S. 528, 5 543 (2005) (“[I]f a government action is found to be impermissible — for instance 6 because it fails to meet the ‘public use’ requirement . . . that is the end of the [Takings 7 Clause] inquiry. No amount of compensation can authorize such action.”).

8      Here, Plaintiffs contend defendants imposed § 14602.6 thirty day impounds rather 9 than simply removing the vehicle from the street pursuant to § 22651(p), which would 10 have enabled the owner to immediately claim his vehicle, see Brewster, 859 F.3d at 11 1197-98, so as to punish the vehicle’s owner for permitting an unlicensed driver to drive 12 the vehicle. FAC ¶65. That is a common issue with the same answer for all class 13 members. Brewster v. City of Los Angeles, 672 F.Supp.3d 872, 973-76 (C.D. Cal. 2023).

14            C. Typicality (Rule 23(a)(3)).

15            “The commonality and typicality requirements of Rule 23(a) tend to merge.”
16 General Telephone Co. of Southwest v. Falcon, 457 U.S. 147, 157 (1982); Stanton v.
17 Boeing, 327 F.3d 938, 957 (9th Cir. 2003) (same). The test of typicality is “whether 18 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is not unique to the named plaintiffs, and whether other class members have been 19 injured by the same course of conduct.” Hanon v. Dataproducts Corp., 976 F.2d 497, 20 508 (9th Cir. 1992). If the representative “claim arises from the same event, practice or course of conduct . . . and is based upon the same legal theory, varying factual 21 differences” will not render the class representative’s claim atypical. Jordan v. County 22 of Los Angeles, supra, 669 F.2d at 1321. Commonality and typicality “mandate only that complainants’ claims be common, and not in conflict.” Hassine v. Jeffes, 846 F.2d 169, 23 177 (3rd Cir. 1988). “[R]epresentative claims are ‘typical’ if they are reasonably co-extensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.” 24 Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1020 (9th Cir. 1998).

1 Plaintiffs' claims are based upon the same legal theories as the claims of the class 2 members they represent, with all claims arising from the same municipal policy 3 (enforcement of § 14602.6 thirty day impounds). Moreover, both Plaintiffs and the class 4 members all suffered actual damages as a result of having their vehicles wrongfully 5 seized and impounded. The actual damages suffered by these representative plaintiffs 6 – loss of their respective vehicles for the impound period – are similar in type and 7 amount to the actual damages suffered by each member of the class.

8 D. Adequacy of Representation (Rule 23(a)(4)).

9 Class Representatives Interests Are Not Antagonistic To The Interests Of The 10 Class

11 Rule 23(a)(4)'s requirement for adequate representation is met when 1) there is 12 no conflict of interest between the legal interests of the named plaintiffs and those of the 13 proposed class, and 2) counsel for the plaintiffs is competent to represent the class.
14 Lerwill Inflight Motion Pictures, Inc., 582 F.2d 507, 512 (9th Cir. 1978); *In Re:
15 Northern Dist. Of Cal Dalkon Shield Etc.*, 693 F.2d 847, 855 (9th Cir. 1982); Stanton, 16 327 F.3d at 957.

17 The interests of the two Plaintiffs and class members are aligned. All had their 18 respective vehicles held in a § 14602.6 impound because (a) their vehicles were being 19 driven by an unlicensed driver within the meaning of § 14602.6(a)(1); (b) per City 20 policy, defendants would not release the vehicle because § 14602.6 mandated a 30 day 21 impound unless the registered owner presented proof that he or she was a licensed 22 driver. ECF 19-2 filed 9/3/22 @ ¶5 [pp. 2-3] (releasing Murcia's vehicle before 23 expiration of the 30 day § 14602.6 impound period "would be inconsistent with Santa 24 Monica Policy Manual section 503.2.1."); ECF 77-4 (The legal justification for 25 removing Mr. Perryman's vehicle from the street [Perryman's license was suspended] 26 was also justification, per City policy, for the 30 day § 14602.6 impound).

27 That the damages each Plaintiff sustained differs from each other (SMPD released 28 Mr. Murcia's vehicle after 18 days whereas SMPD held Mr. Perryman's vehicle for the

1 full 30 days), or that the impound period varies among class members (some vehicles 2 released after only a few days; some held for the full 30 days or longer) is not material.
3 Jordan v. County of Los Angeles, 669 F.2d at 1321 (“[V]arying factual differences” 4 among class members will not automatically make the class representative’s claim 5 atypical.”).

6 Like all class members, Plaintiffs had their vehicles impounded under § 14602.6 7 because the driver (Plaintiffs themselves regarding their respective vehicle) were 8 unlicensed within the meaning of § 14602.6(a)(1); following which their vehicles were 9 held for some period of time. True, the actual period of vehicle impound varied, both 10 between the two Plaintiffs (18 days vs. 31 days) and class members. That though does 11 not matter as all sustained the same injury (loss of vehicle for some period of time) from 12 the same policy triggered by the same fact – unlicensed driver within the meaning of 13 § 14602.6(a)(1). Hence, that damages for the individual Plaintiffs and class members 14 varies does not make Plaintiffs’ claims atypical to each other or to those of the class 15 members, or that Plaintiffs cannot be class representatives. Tardiff v. Knox County, 365
16 F.3d 1, 6 (1st Cir. 2004); In re Visa Check/MasterMoney Antitrust Litigation, 280 F.3d 17 124, 141 (2nd Cir. 2001); Gunnells v. Healthplan Servs., 348 F.3d 417, 426 (4th Cir.
18 2003); Bertulli v. Indep. Ass’n of Cont'l Pilots, 242 F.3d 290 (5th Cir. 2001); Allapattah 19 Servs. v. Exxon Corp., 333 F.3d 1248, 1261 (11th Cir. Fla. 2003); Klay v. Humana, Inc., 20 382 F.3d 1241, 1259 (11th Cir. 2004). In short, Plaintiffs’ interests align with those of 21 class members. Multi-Ethnic Immigrant Workers Org. Network v. City of Los Angeles, 22 246 F.R.D. 621, 629-30 (C.D. Cal. 2007) (class representatives, protesters ordered to 23 disperse, adequate for damages class of protestors ordered to disperse).

24 Counsel Is Well Qualified To Represent The Class

25 Plaintiffs’ counsel include Donald W. Cook and Cynthia Anderson-Barker, both 26 experienced class action and civil rights practitioners. Furthermore, Mr. Cook has 27 substantial class action experience in successfully representing owners of impounded 28 vehicles. Cook decl. ¶¶12-15 (ECF 77-1).
